their work day, so we designed a high-performance uniform line inspired by the athleisure wear that is popular with today's consumers. These stylish garments are more like something you'd see on a golf course than in a uniform catalog, yet they're tough enough to withstand the rigors of an industrial laundry process."

"People have a hard time believing that these are uniforms," said Drummond. "We've created an innovative new product line that is extremely durable, yet comfortable, light weight and stylish. The apparel was developed to boost employee morale and satisfaction and the feedback we're getting from the market is very positive."
