"Bart's strategic vision and strong lineage of leadership will be a significant asset to Aramark," said Bruno. "Our healthcare division is poised for tremendous expansion in the United States and Bart's depth of experience will help accelerate our company's growth and our quality of service will surely be enhanced under his tenure."

Before joining Aramark, Kaericher served as Senior Vice President of Sales & Marketing, Retention & Strategic Partnerships for Morrison and Crothall, divisions of Compass Group, NAD.

While at Compass, he played an instrumental role in driving new business and building a culture focused on healthy growth. Kaericher also served as sales leader & architect on several prominent account wins and led strategic retention efforts for several of the company's most strategic clients. Prior to his tenure with Compass Group, NAD, Kaericher worked for more than a decade at B. Braun Medical Inc.

"Healthcare has been an amazing place to build my career. Its dynamic pace, constantly changing conditions and creation of healing environments has always been a draw for me," said Kaericher. "Aramark Healthcare is a top-flight organization with a rich heritage and an outstanding reputation. The company's dedication to its high-quality people and partners, combined with its laser focus on service, quality, and patient experience, has created a culture that makes it the right partner for healthcare needs."
