Get Inspired by Global Spices

Look no further than the spice aisle to recreate your favorite international cuisines. The fragrant and vibrant notes from spices and herbs are one of the many ways each culture distinguishes one cuisine from another. These recipes put popular flavor profiles to good use.

Indian: Cumin, coriander, cinnamon, turmeric, ginger, mustard powder, and chili powder make the perfect blend.
  - Try: Tandoori Chicken Wrap or Tandoori Spiced Halibut with Steamed Vegetables for warm, savory flavor.

Island & Creole: Spice up your dish with allspice, cayenne, thyme, ginger, and salt, for a taste of the islands.

- Greek Seven-Layer Dip: Grab some pitas and enjoy this tasty Greek-inspired, heart-healthy snack or appetizer.
- Mediterranean Couscous Salad with Chickpeas: Grapes add a sweet note to this super simple, savory, meatless meal, which is easy to pull together on a busy night.

Plant-Forward Dishes with International Flavor

Planning on cheering on your home country at a Summer Games barbeque? These plant-forward recipes will impress family and friends and are great on their own or in addition to your traditional summer favorites.

- Curry Roasted Cauliflower Wrap: Crunchy chickpeas, savory roasted cauliflower, hummus, feta, and other flavors combine in this satisfying vegetarian sandwich.
- Thai Peanut Noodle Salad: Noodles, cucumbers, carrots, bell pepper, green onions, and peanuts, tossed in honey peanut dressing.
- Oaxacan Avocado Jicama Appetizer: This unique avocado appetizer recipe uses jicama, a Mexican root vegetable, for a crispy and healthy alternative to crackers.
