Aramark Healthcare+ leaders, including President and CEO Paul "PJ" Johnson (center), celebrate at Modern Healthcare's "Best Places to Work in Healthcare" awards gala following the organization's recognition as the number one overall supplier organization and, for the third consecutive year, the top-ranked Large Supplier.

"Being recognized by Modern Healthcare, particularly as the top-ranked supplier organization, reflects our ability to attract, develop, and retain talent at scale, which is critical to supporting healthcare organizations and delivering industry-leading service across the more than 600 healthcare facilities we serve. We celebrate this recognition alongside our clients because our mission is to help them improve outcomes and enhance the experiences of the patients, caregivers, and communities they serve," said Paul "PJ" Johnson, President and CEO of Aramark Healthcare+.

Aramark Healthcare+ earned this recognition as a result of its investment in employee development, including leadership training, certifications, and career advancement programs.

In addition to earning the program's highest overall ranking among supplier organizations in 2026, the company was also named the top Healthiest Workplace and placed 3rd Family-Friendliest Workplace.

The annual program drew more than 700 applicants and recognized 150 organizations nationwide, including 75 healthcare providers and 75 healthcare supplier organizations.

The honors build on a growing list of workplace recognitions earned through Modern Healthcare's "Best Places to Work in Healthcare™" program, including:

- #1 Large Supplier \(2024, 2025, 2026\)
- #1 Healthiest Workplace \(2025, 2026\)
- #1 in Community Impact \(2024\)
- #3 Family-Friendliest Workplace \(2025, 2026\)
